

October 29

The Third Glorious Mystery

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. (Acts 2:1-4)

A bronze sculpture of a tree with olive branches, set against a background of a stone wall and a red fabric. The sculpture is the central focus, with its trunk and branches rendered in a textured, patinated bronze. The branches are adorned with small, dark green leaves and clusters of olives. The background consists of a light-colored stone wall on the left and a red fabric on the right. The overall composition is a still life with a religious or historical theme.

The Third Glorious Mystery

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

The Upper Room, Mount Zion

Bringing It Home:

In the face of an important decision or need today, take a moment to invoke the Holy Spirit before pressing forward with action.